- The written report is in a folder and is placed in a "pocket" on the display board.
- Save a copy of the written report. (Just in case something happens to the original.)

- Tables, graphs, and charts are displayed as data.
- Photographs are displayed on board, if desired.
- Papers, labels, and letters on the display board are flat and firmly in place. No tacks, pins, tape, or staples are used.
- The student's name, project title, grade and teacher are in the upper right hand corner on the back of the board.
